Vouches Tied to Domantas Radeckas

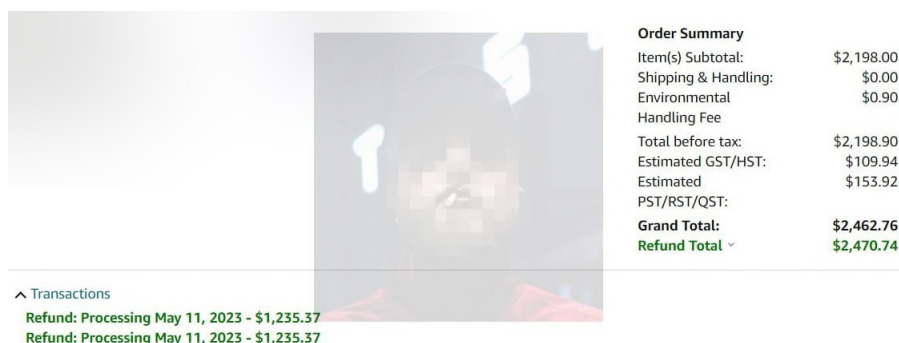

1. Amazon identified IP addresses located in Lithuania that were used to access Amazon accounts associated with Radeckas, as well as other accounts connected to the REKK scheme that obtained fraudulent concessions. The concessions tied to Radeckas's IP addresses include high-value items such as Lego items, Apple laptops, and Ring cameras that were commonly targeted by REKK. Amazon also compared these refunded order IDs to vouches posted on the REKK Telegram channel and located multiple matches, confirming that Radeckas's IP address was directly associated with accounts that obtained (and publicly promoted) fraudulent refunds. Details of these vouches, along with the screenshots posted to REKK's Telegram channel, are detailed below.

2. For example, on June 7, 2023, REKK accessed an Amazon account from an IP address associated with Domantas Radeckas and obtained a refund for an Apple iPhone 14 Pro Max for 4,197.00 Euros. A vouch for this refund was posted on REKK's Telegram account, a screenshot of which is below.
